DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-4, in the reply filed on 2/3/2010 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 and 3-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 0172290 (WO '290; document already in record). WO '290 teaches a sustained-release preparation comprising a dipeptidyl peptidase IV inhibitor and a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier, such as polyvinyl pyrrolidone (a hydrophilic polymer) (see page 6, line 8 to page 7, line 18). The dipeptidyl peptidase IV inhibitor is a hypoglycemic agent and the preparation is used for the treatment of diabetes (see abstract).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 0172290 (WO '290; document already in record). WO '290 teaches a sustained-release preparation comprising a dipeptidyl peptidase IV inhibitor and a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier, such as polyvinyl pyrrolidone (a hydrophilic polymer) (see page 6, line 8 to page 7, line 18). The dipeptidyl peptidase IV inhibitor is a hypoglycemic agent and the preparation is used for treatment of diabetes (see abstract).

WO '290 fails to teach the weight percent range of the polyvinyl pyrrolidone of not less than 5 wt%.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to optimize the amount of polyvinyl pyrrolidone present in the dipeptidyl peptidase IV inhibitor formulation to improve the efficacy of the formulation in treating diabetes. In this way, one would find the range of "not less than 5 wt%" through routine experimentation. "[W]here the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation." In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955)" MPEP § 2144.05, II.
